All over the world people are searching all over the world people are hurting all over the world people are praying raising their hands raising their hands

all over the world pray for my brother all over the world love one another all over the world all over the world

All over the world church bells are broken all over the world words unspoken all over the world we need some healing all over the world

All over the world Jesus is calling all over the world His spirit is falling all over the world the sheep have been scattered all over the world

Break A and D All over the world All over the world all over the world all over the world

All over the world. Children are crying all over the world mothers are sighing all over the world please don't stop trying all over the world

All over the world streams are polluted all over the world families uprooted all over the world the truth is diluted all over the world

All over the world Jesus is calling all over the world His spirit is falling all over the world the sheep have been scattered all over the world

raising their hands all over the world pray for my brother all over the world love one another all over the world all over the world All over the world
